

RespondPal

Done-for-you review responses, built for your industry

AI tools like ChatGPT and Google's own AI Overviews are increasingly deciding who gets recommended — based on how a business responds to reviews, not just its star rating.

A business with no responses, generic ones, or anything resembling combative is quietly losing visibility without realizing it. RespondPal handles it end to end — professional, on-brand responses to every review within 24 hours, AI-drafted and human-approved before anything posts, so this is never something you have to think about again.

WHAT WE DO

- Respond to every new review, both platforms, within 24 hours
- Industry-calibrated AI, reviewed by a human before it ever posts
- Sounds like you — brand voice, tone, and signing name, not generic AI
- A monthly feedback loop makes it sharper the longer you stay

WHY IT'S DIFFERENT

- No contract — cancel anytime
- Live within 48 hours of signing up
- No passwords shared — official manager access only
- You never write, approve, or think about a single response
